B1

How many different species of animals live on Mundus?

B2

Are there any invertebrates (animals that do not have a spinal column) on Mundus?

B3

Are ringflies nocturnal animals (active at night), or are they active during the day?

B4

Which animal are the Mundians afraid of?

B5

Besides shellbeasts, Mundians also eat a plant that they call “waan”. What part of the plant do they eat?

B6

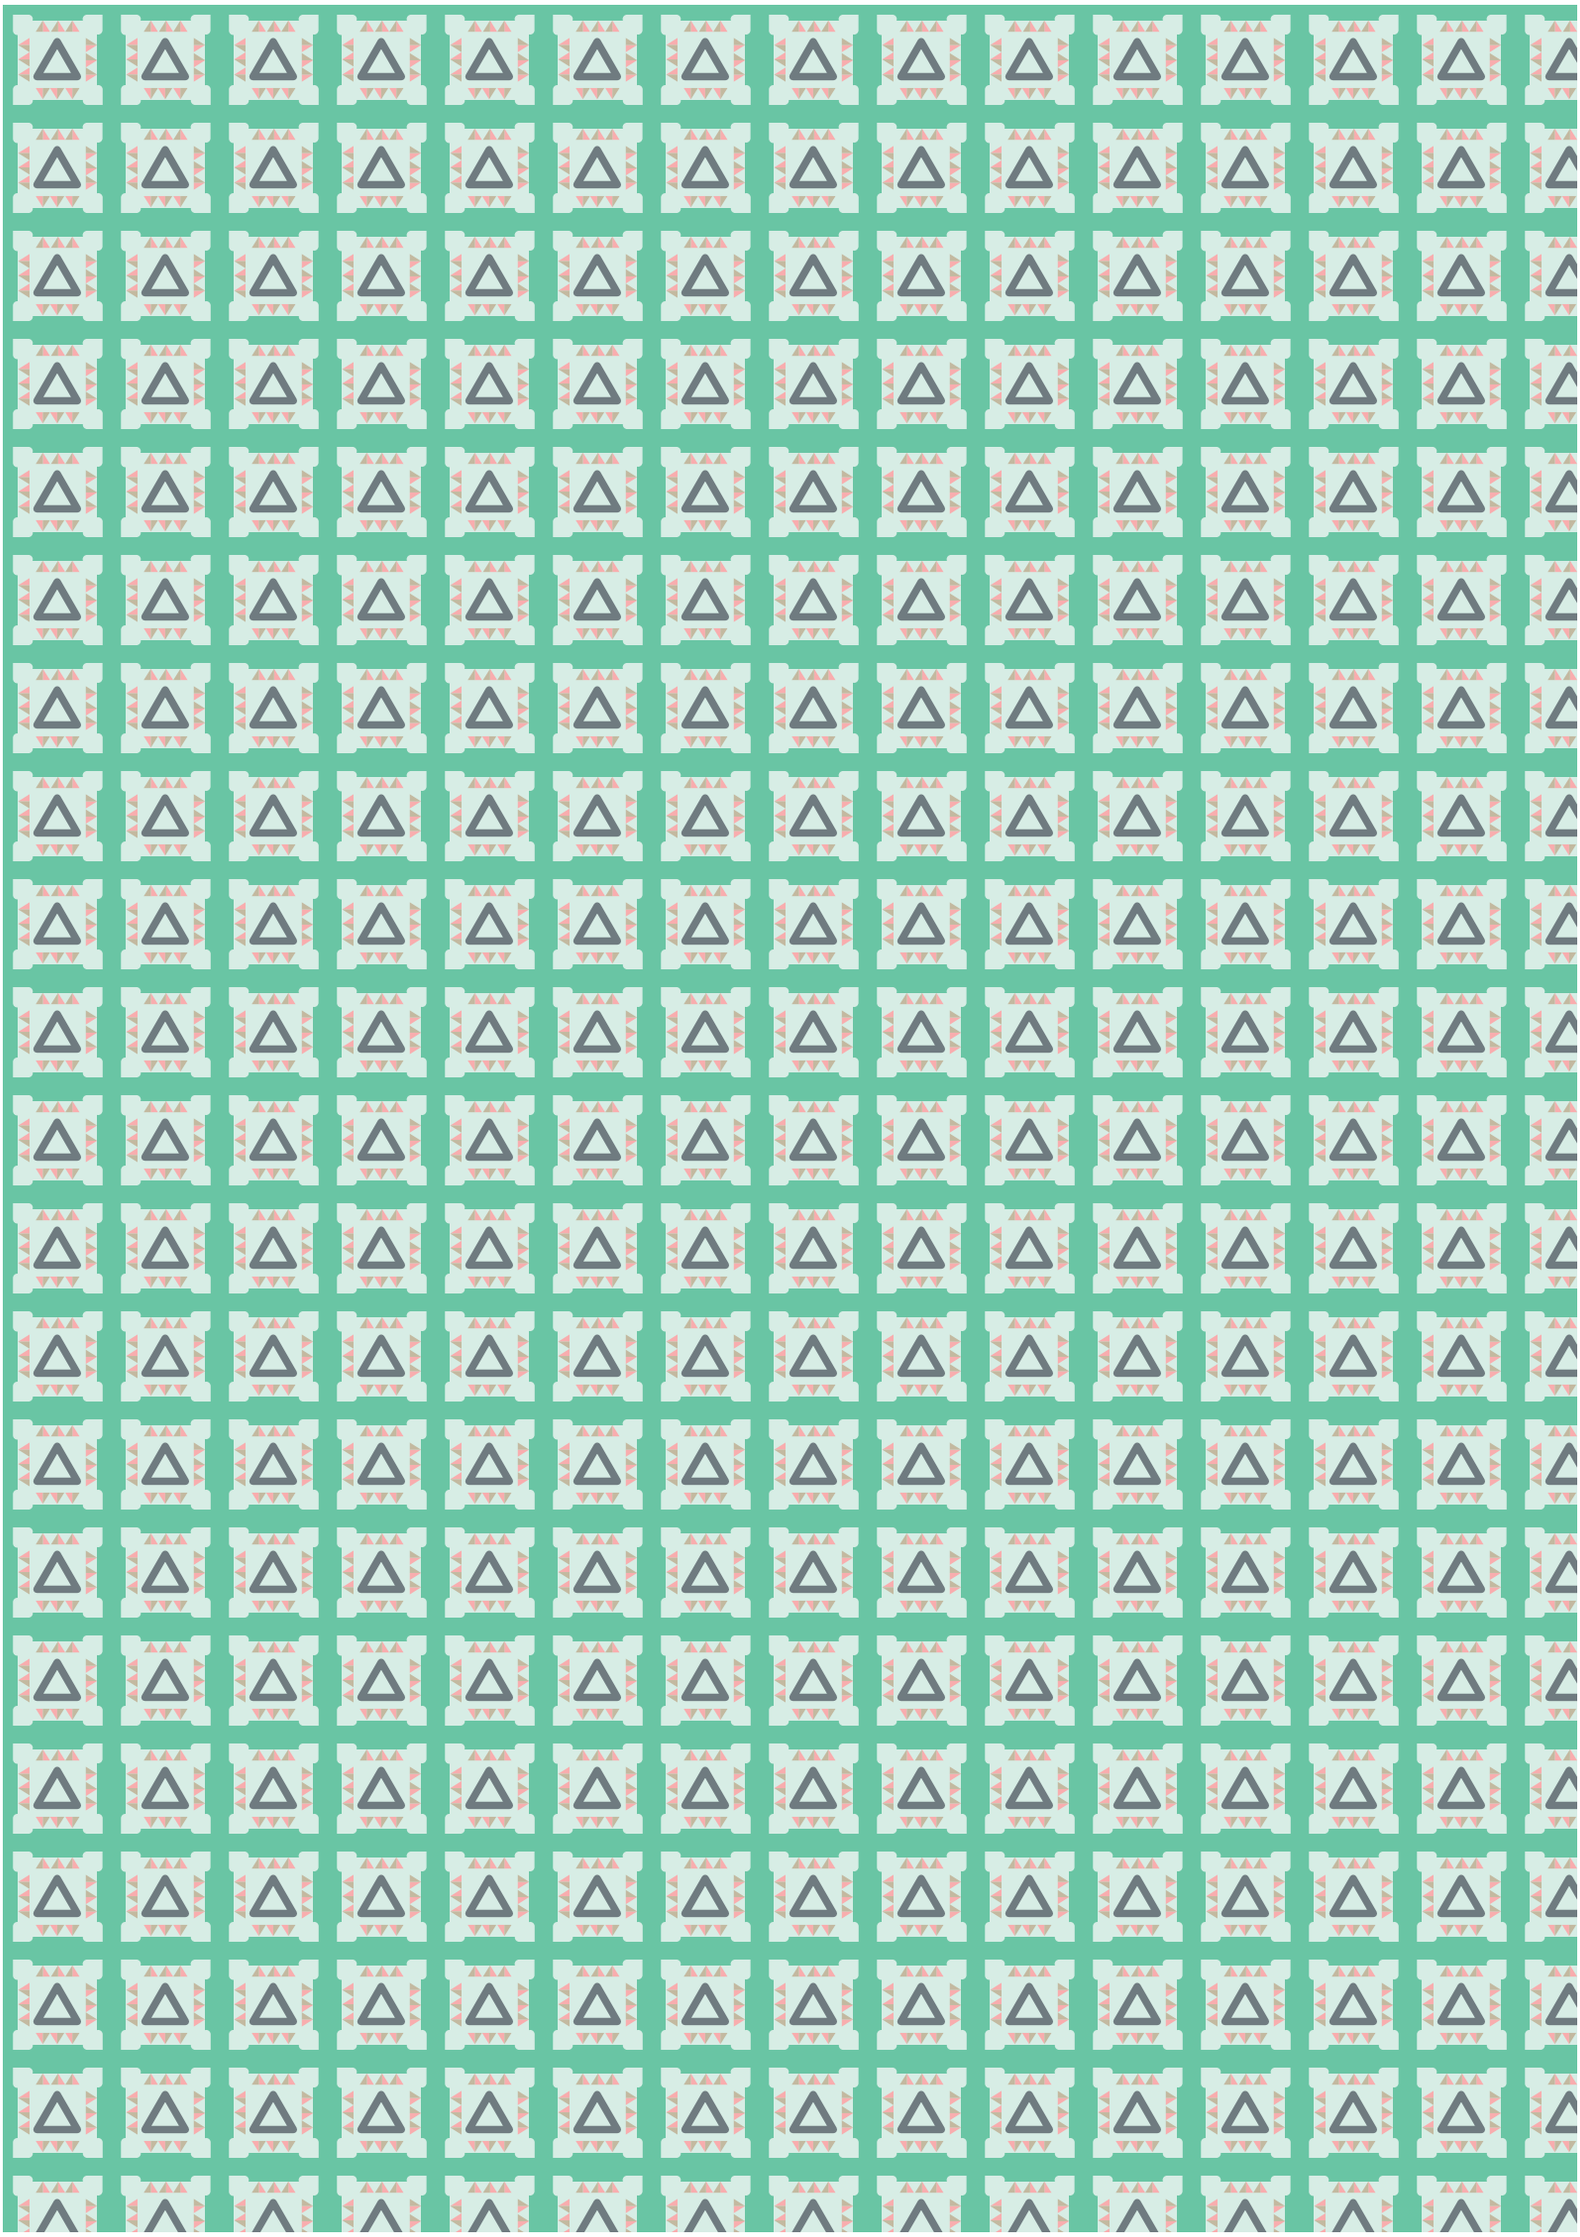
Is the shell of a shellbeast hard, like bone, or soft, like flesh?

B7

Where does the shellbeast have its anus (its bottom)?

B8

How many seeds does a single “waan” flower produce?



B9

What season is it in the picture of the school?

B10

How many fingers do Mundians have?

B11

What colour is the fruit of the “deffe” plant?

B12

What colour are the seeds of the “waan” plant?

B13

Were there shellbeasts in the “slip dok dok” era?

B14

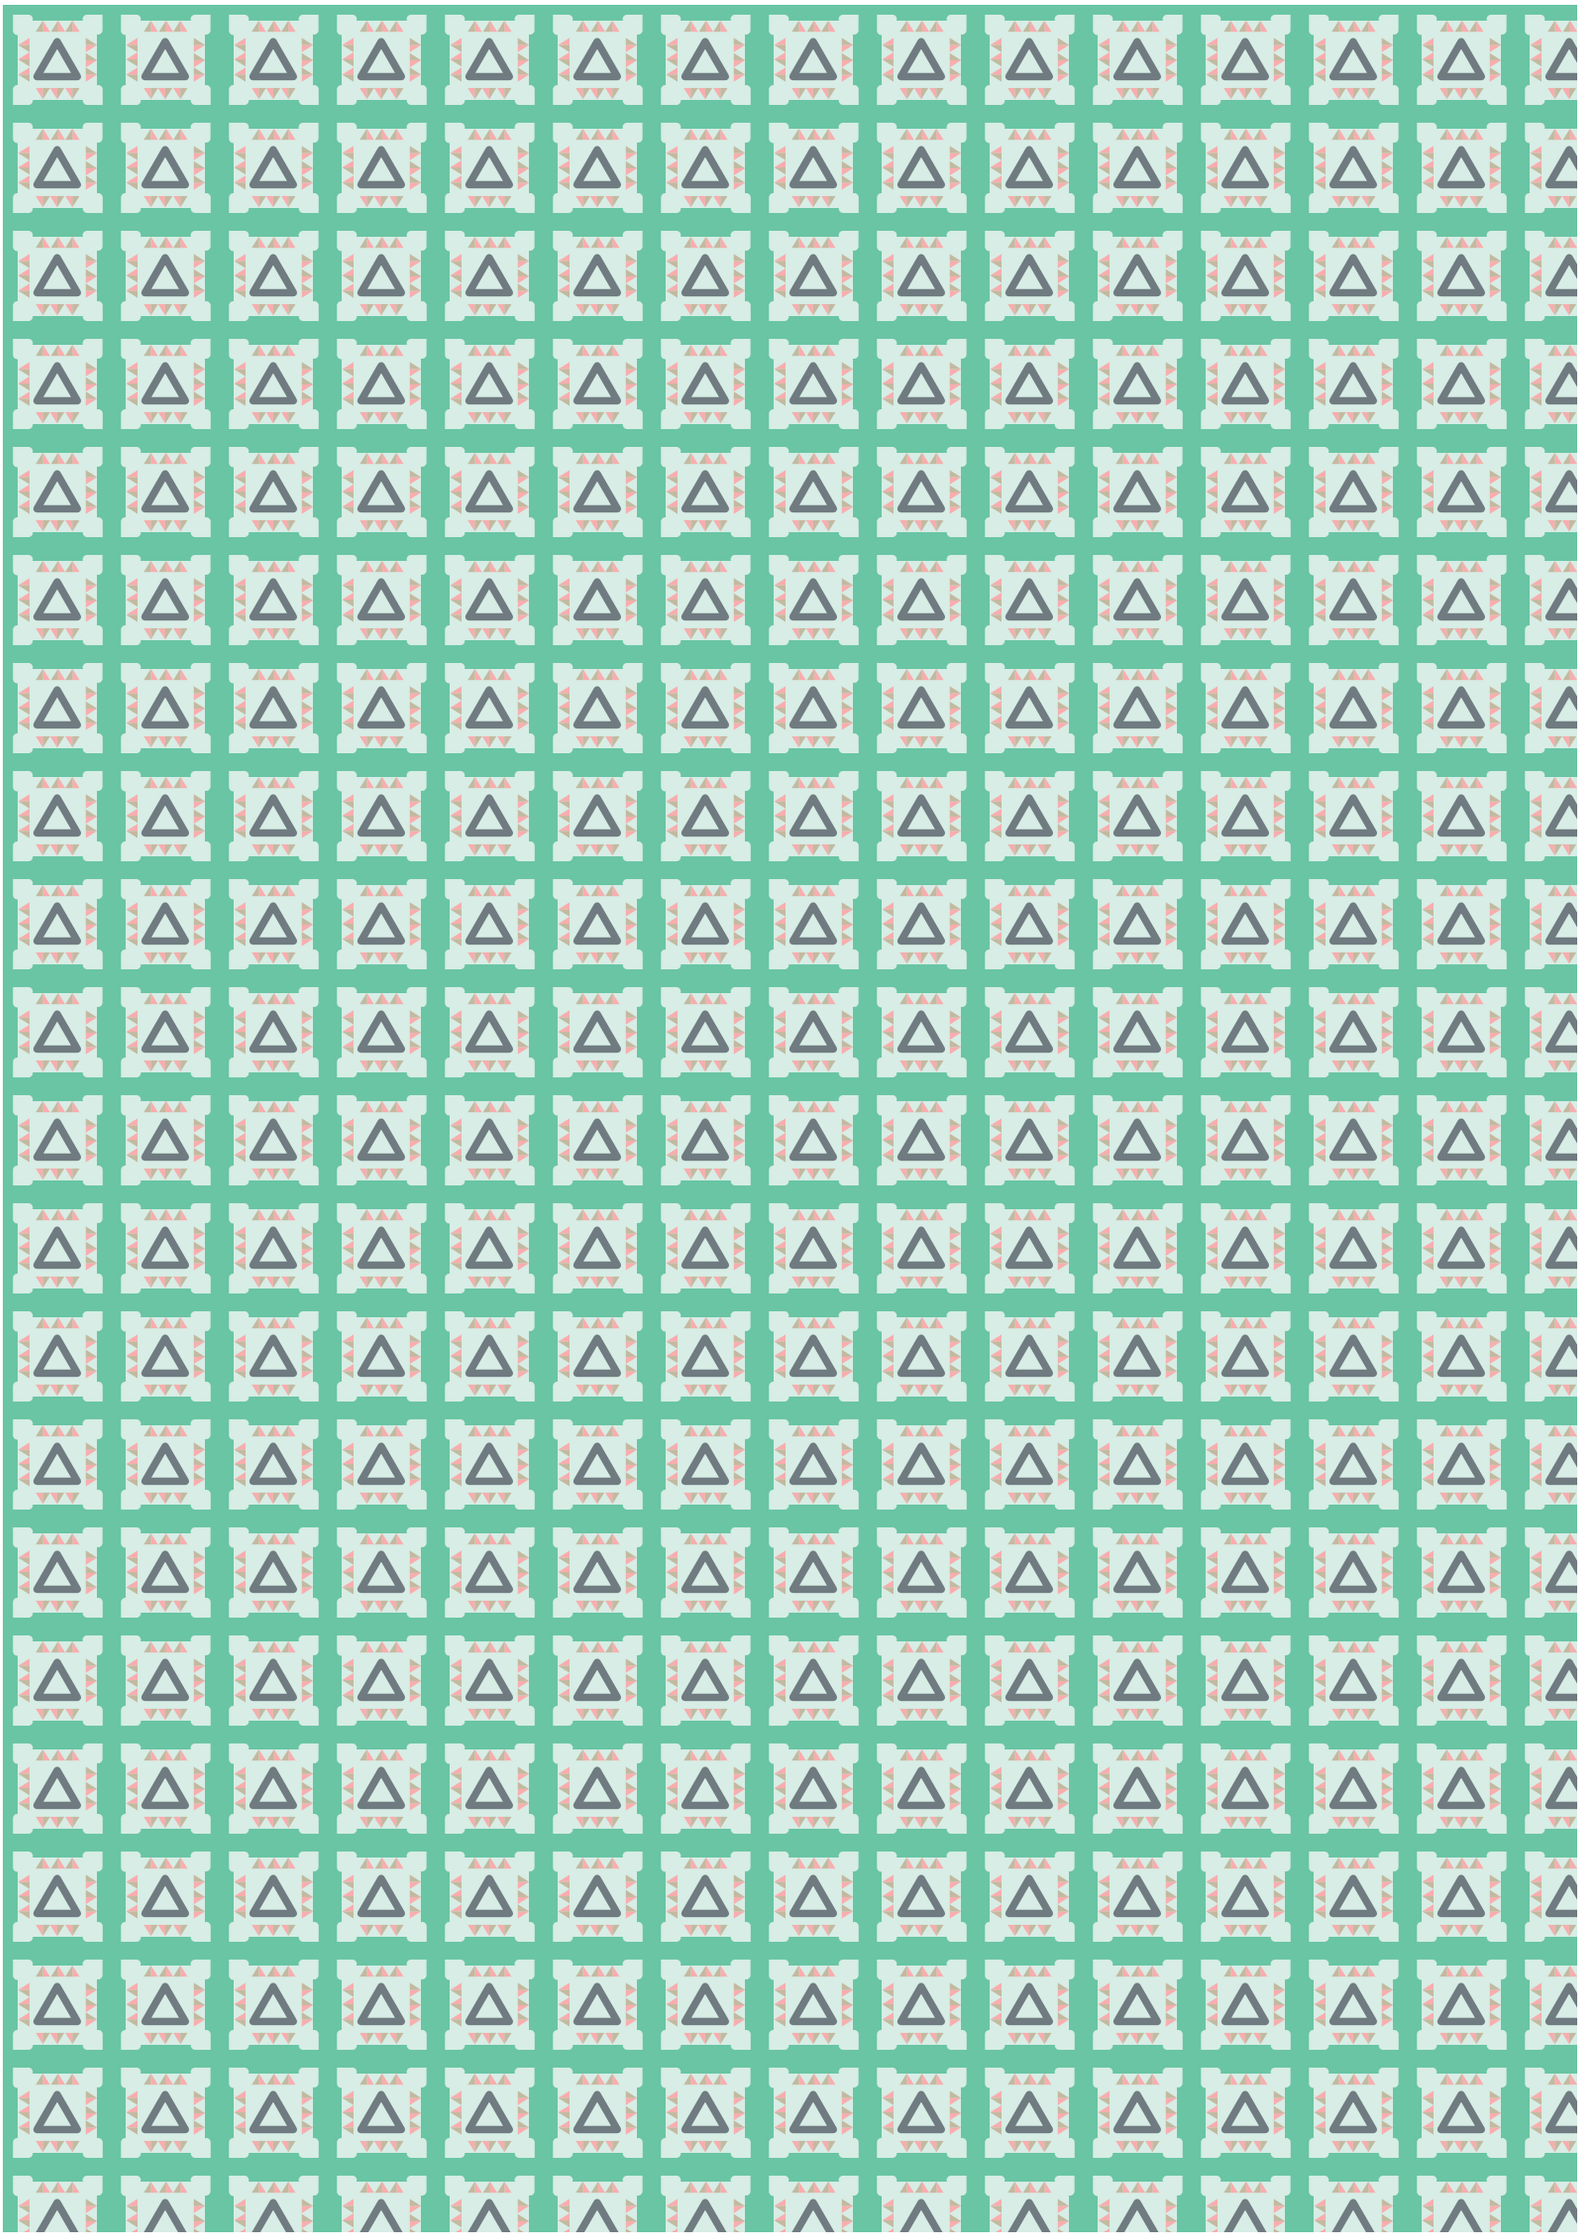
What kind of mark does the ringfly have on its back?

B15

“Klang” means ‘season’. How many seasons are there on Mundus?

B16

“Klang” means ‘season’. Which season is the hottest?



B17

Are there more than 365 days in a Mundian year or fewer? (365 days = one year on Earth)

B18

Does it ever freeze on Mundus?

B19

Which town on Mundus is at the highest altitude?

B20

Which two Mundian towns are farthest from each other?

B21

Are there any volcanoes on Mundus?

B22

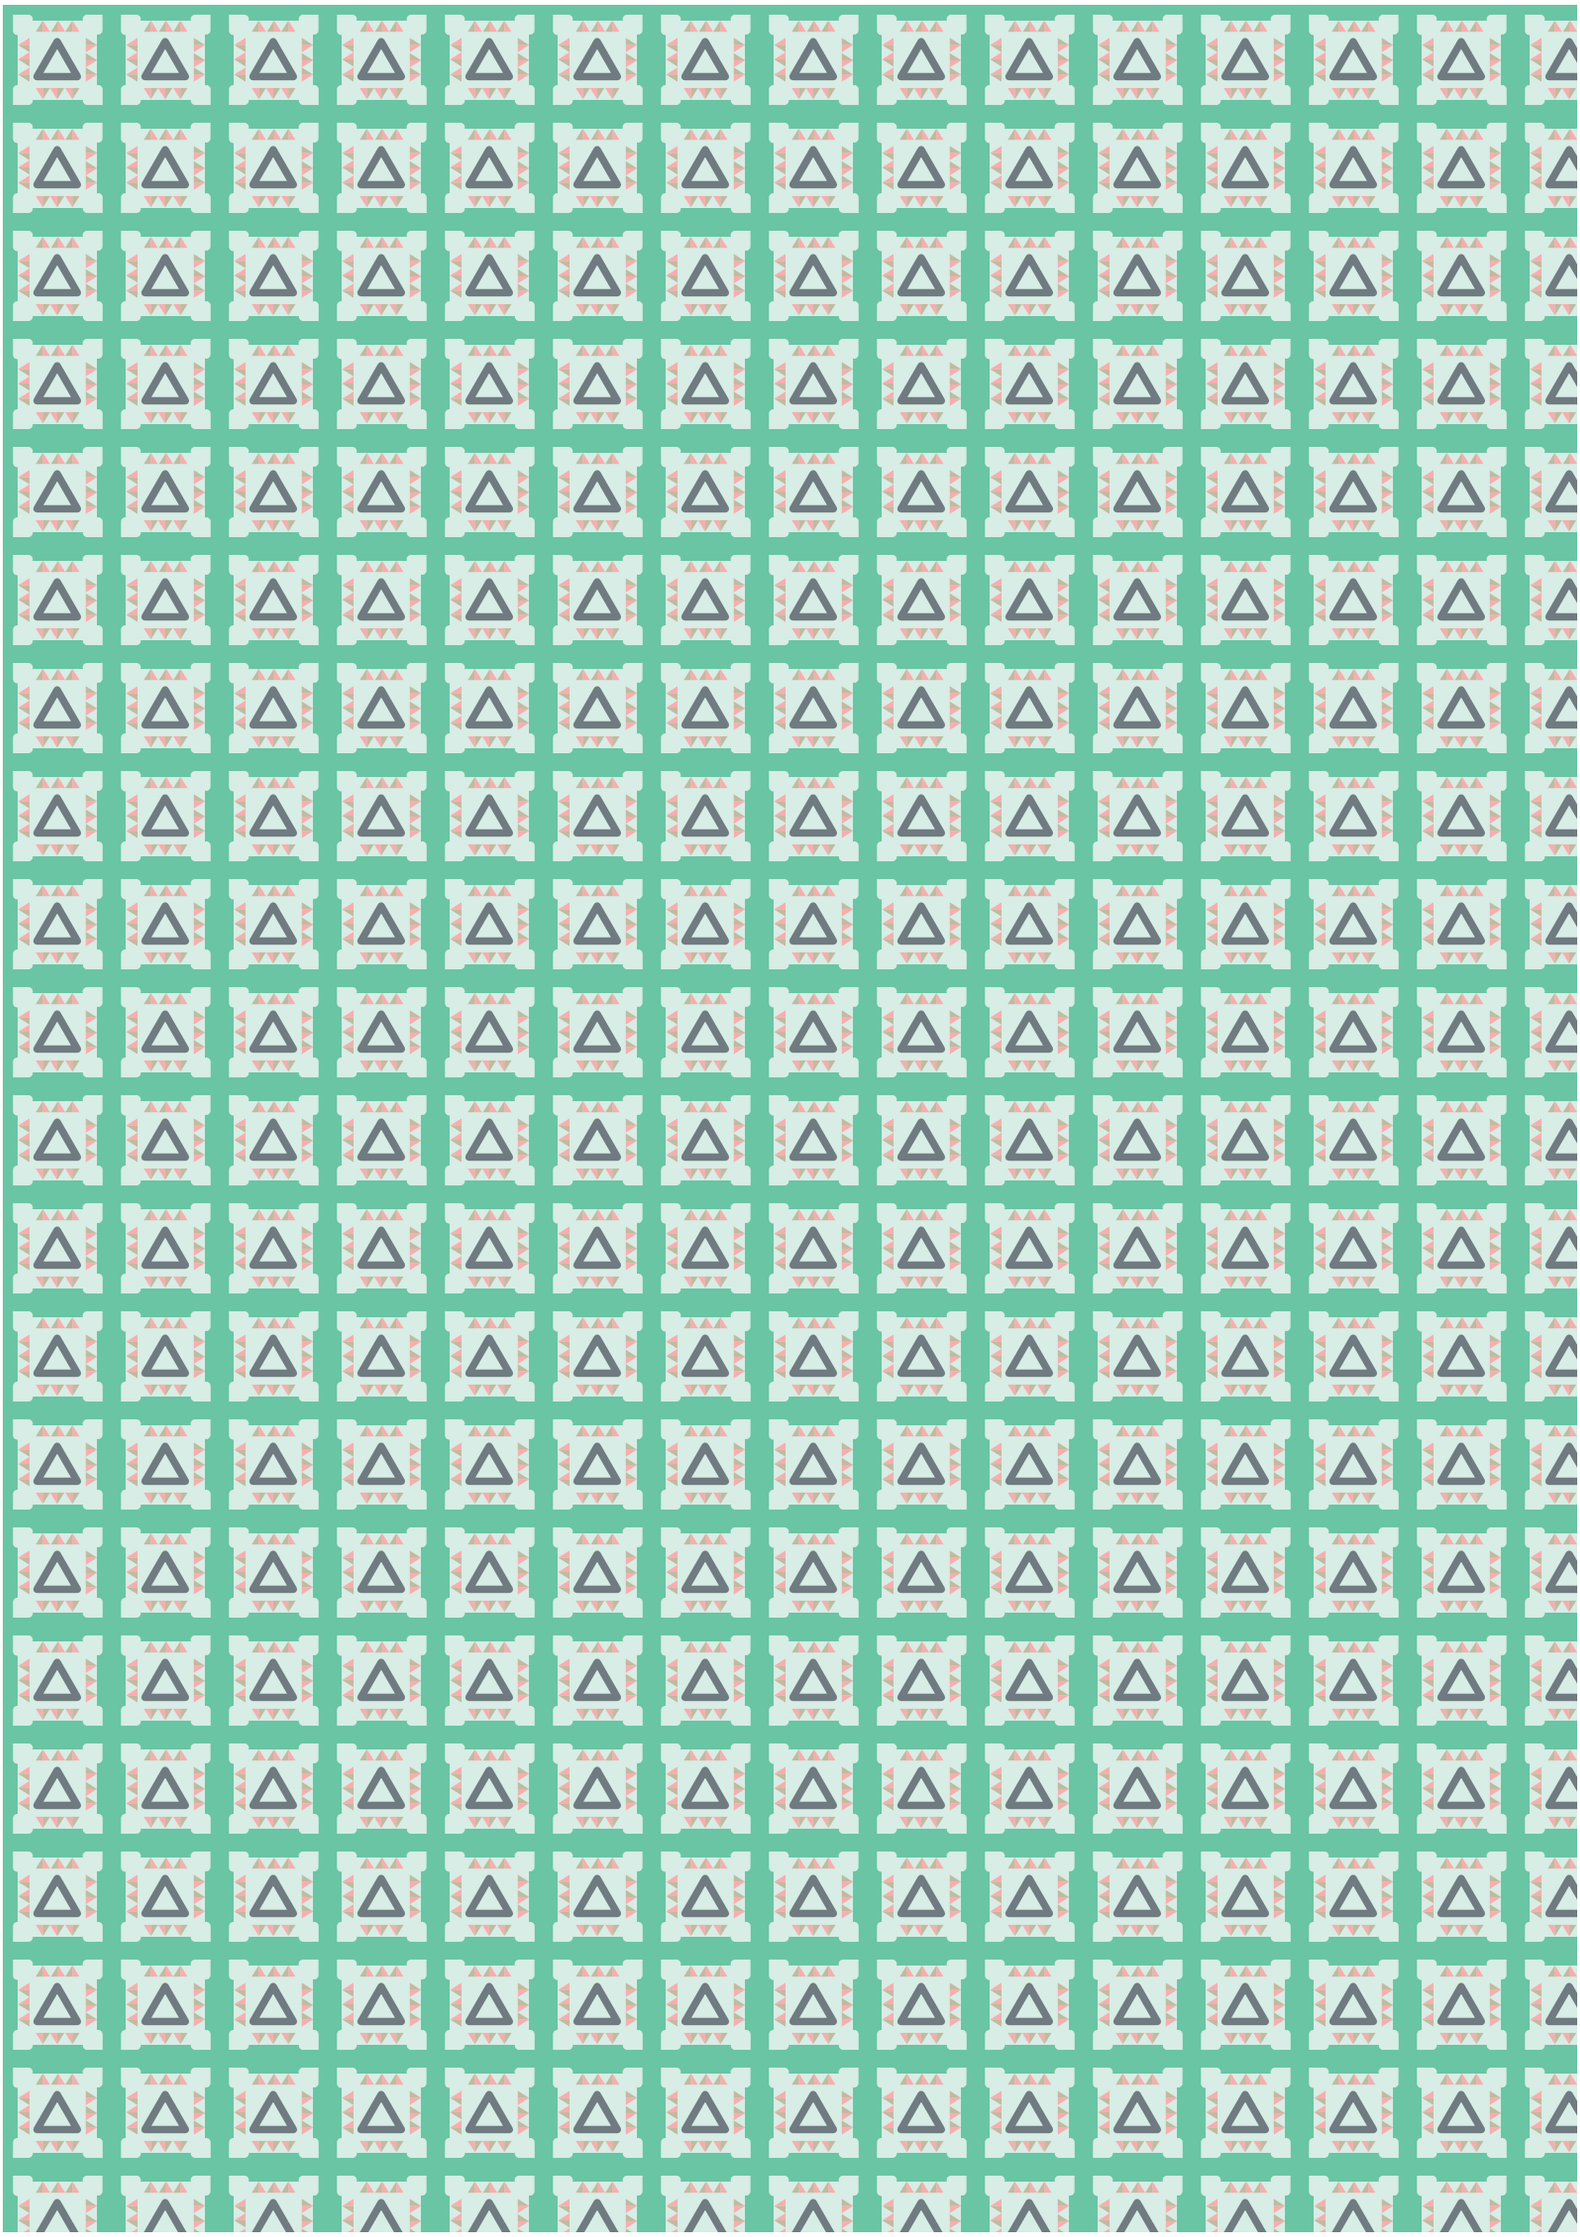
Does it ever snow on Mundus?

B23

How far is the most western point of Mundus (left on the map) from the most eastern point? Give your answer in Mundian “dos”.

B24

Why are some layers of soil in the hills darker than others?



B25

Mundian numbers consist of dots, lines and triangles. What has a higher value, a dot or a triangle?

B26

Does this represent a single number or more than one number?

B27

Does this represent a single number or more than one one number?

B28

If a single number consists of a few dots, a few lines and a few triangles, which of these shapes are at the top?

B29

Do Mundians write the result of an addition problem below the problem or alongside it?

B30

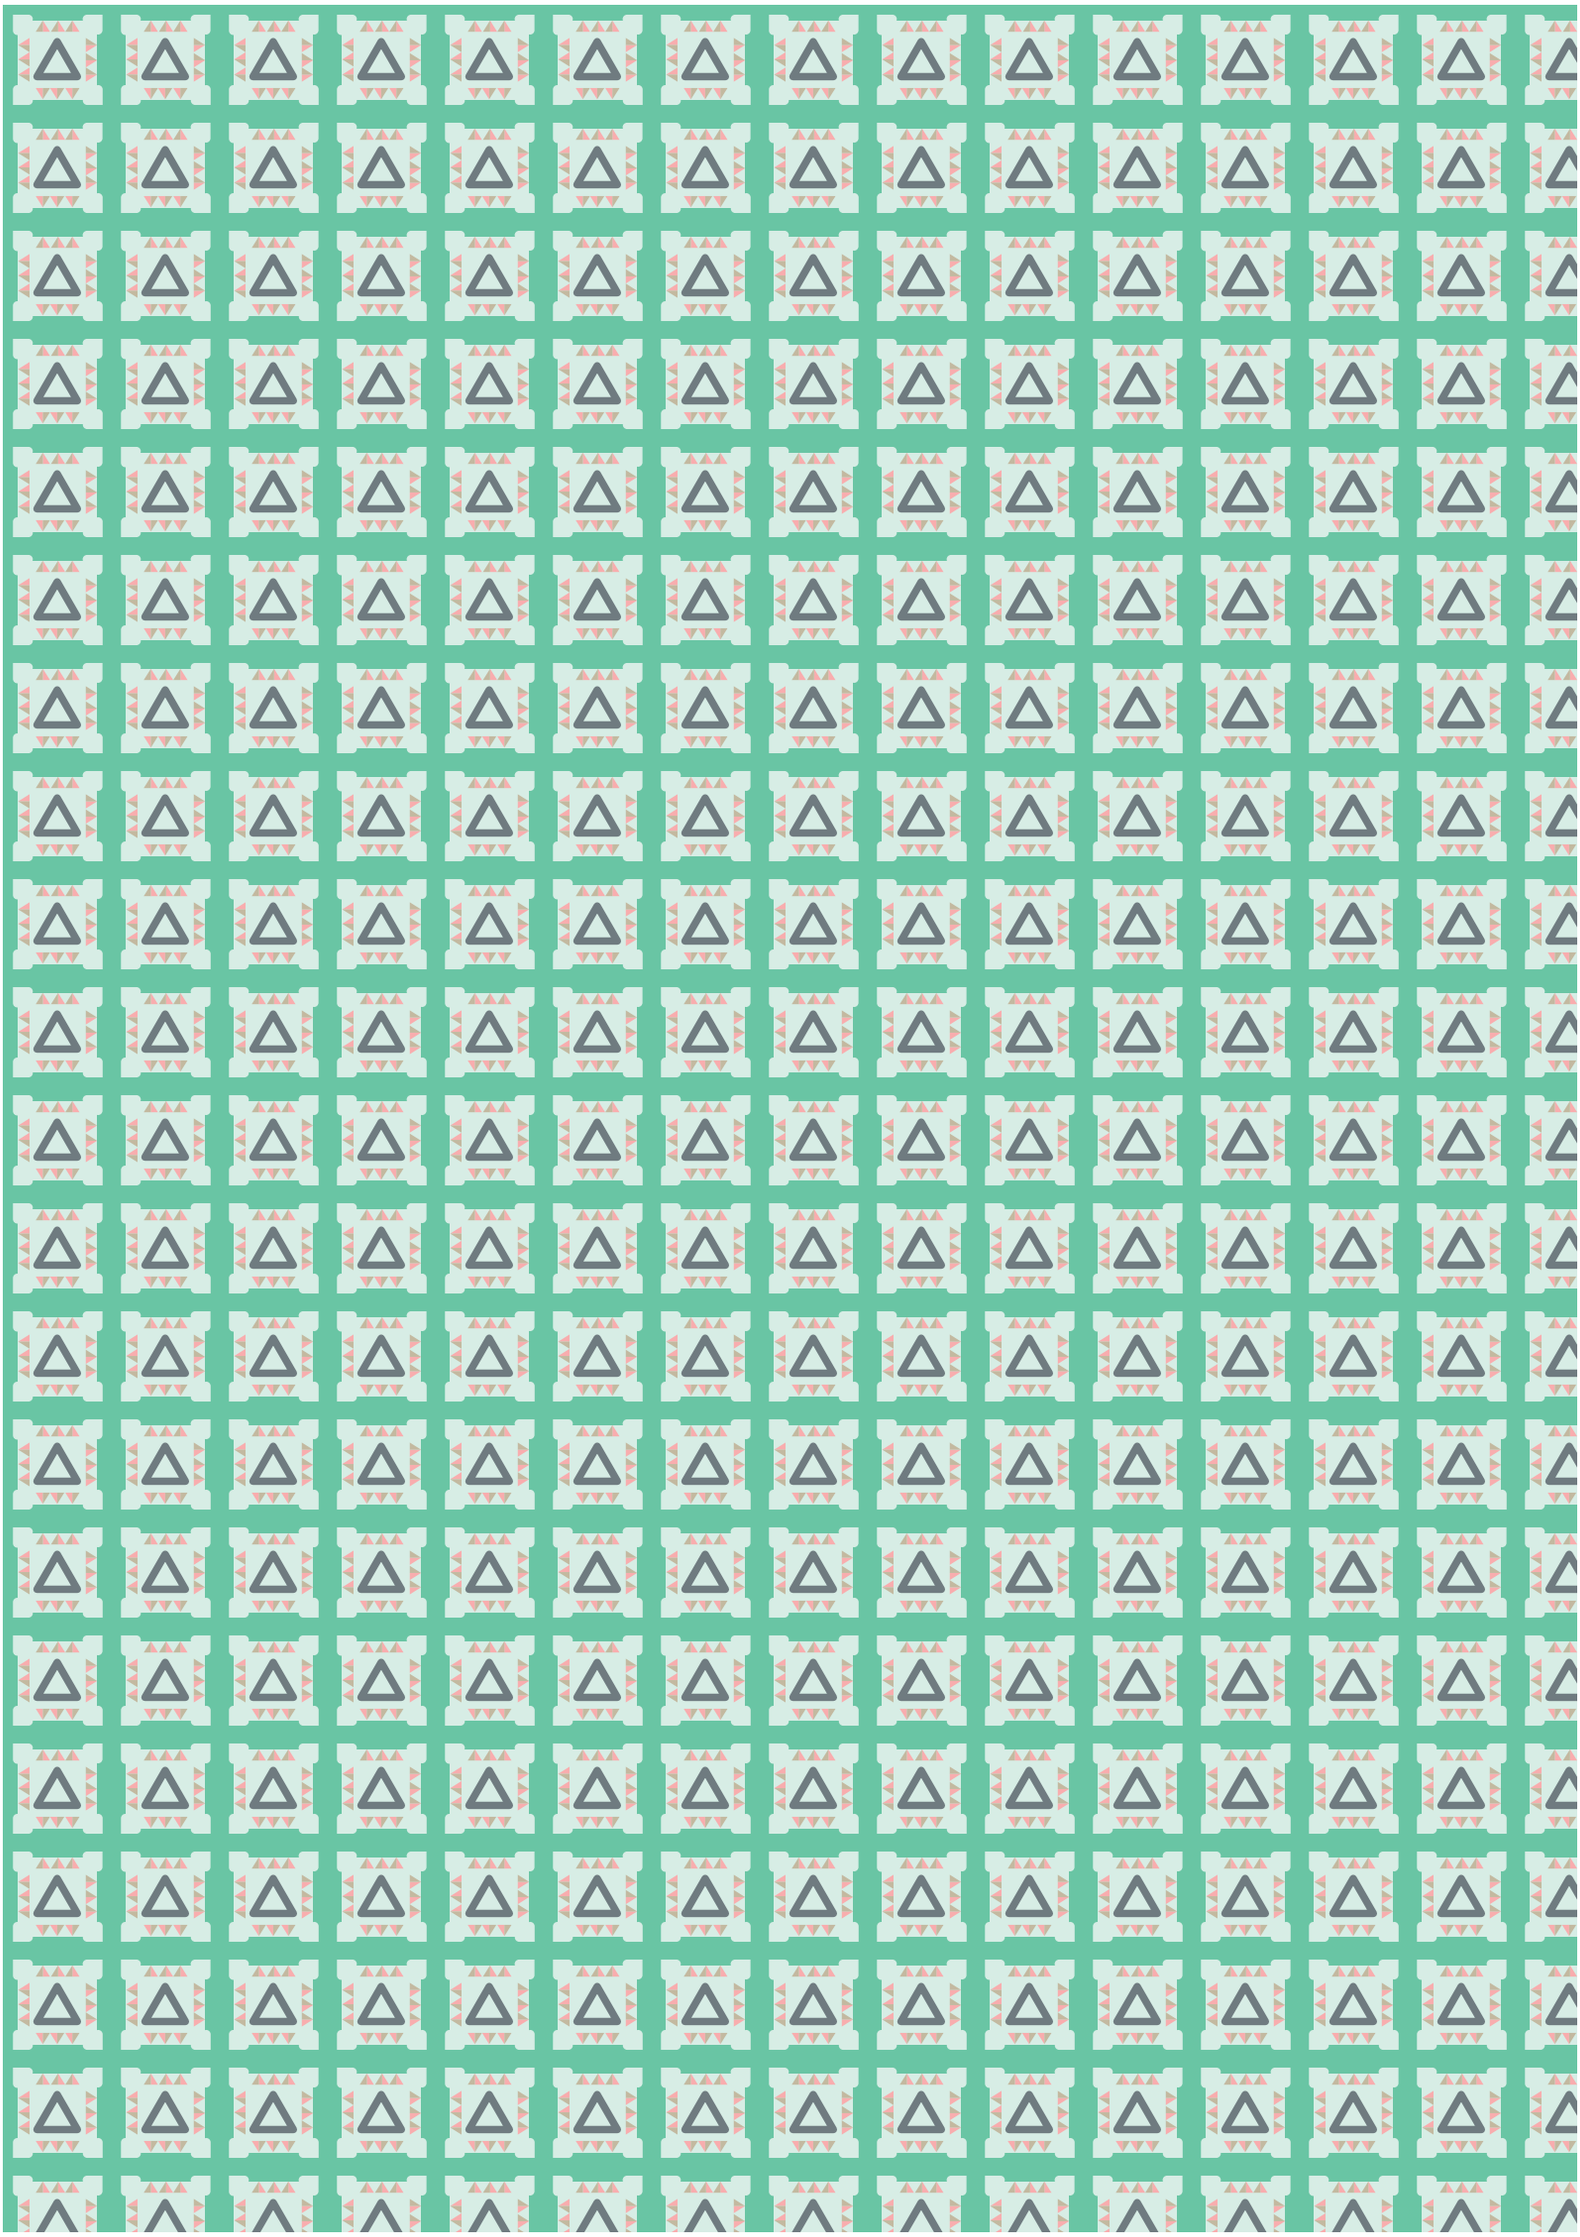
Mundians can walk about 35 “dos” in a day. How many days does it take them to walk from Laka-wom to Nuki-wom?

B31

Do Mundians have a written language?

B32

What Mundian word is shown here?



B33

Mundians use the word “pi” a lot. Do they use it when they’re happy, or when they’re unhappy?

B34

A Mundian points up ahead and says “blof maya”. You see spiceherb plants, hills, and the ocean in the distance. What does “blof maya” mean?

B35

A Mundian walks past and says “do steppe kapuki”. What does he mean?

B36

A Mundian looks at you and says “do affu lo”. What does he mean?

B37

“Slip” means ‘era’. In which era do the Mundians live now?

B38

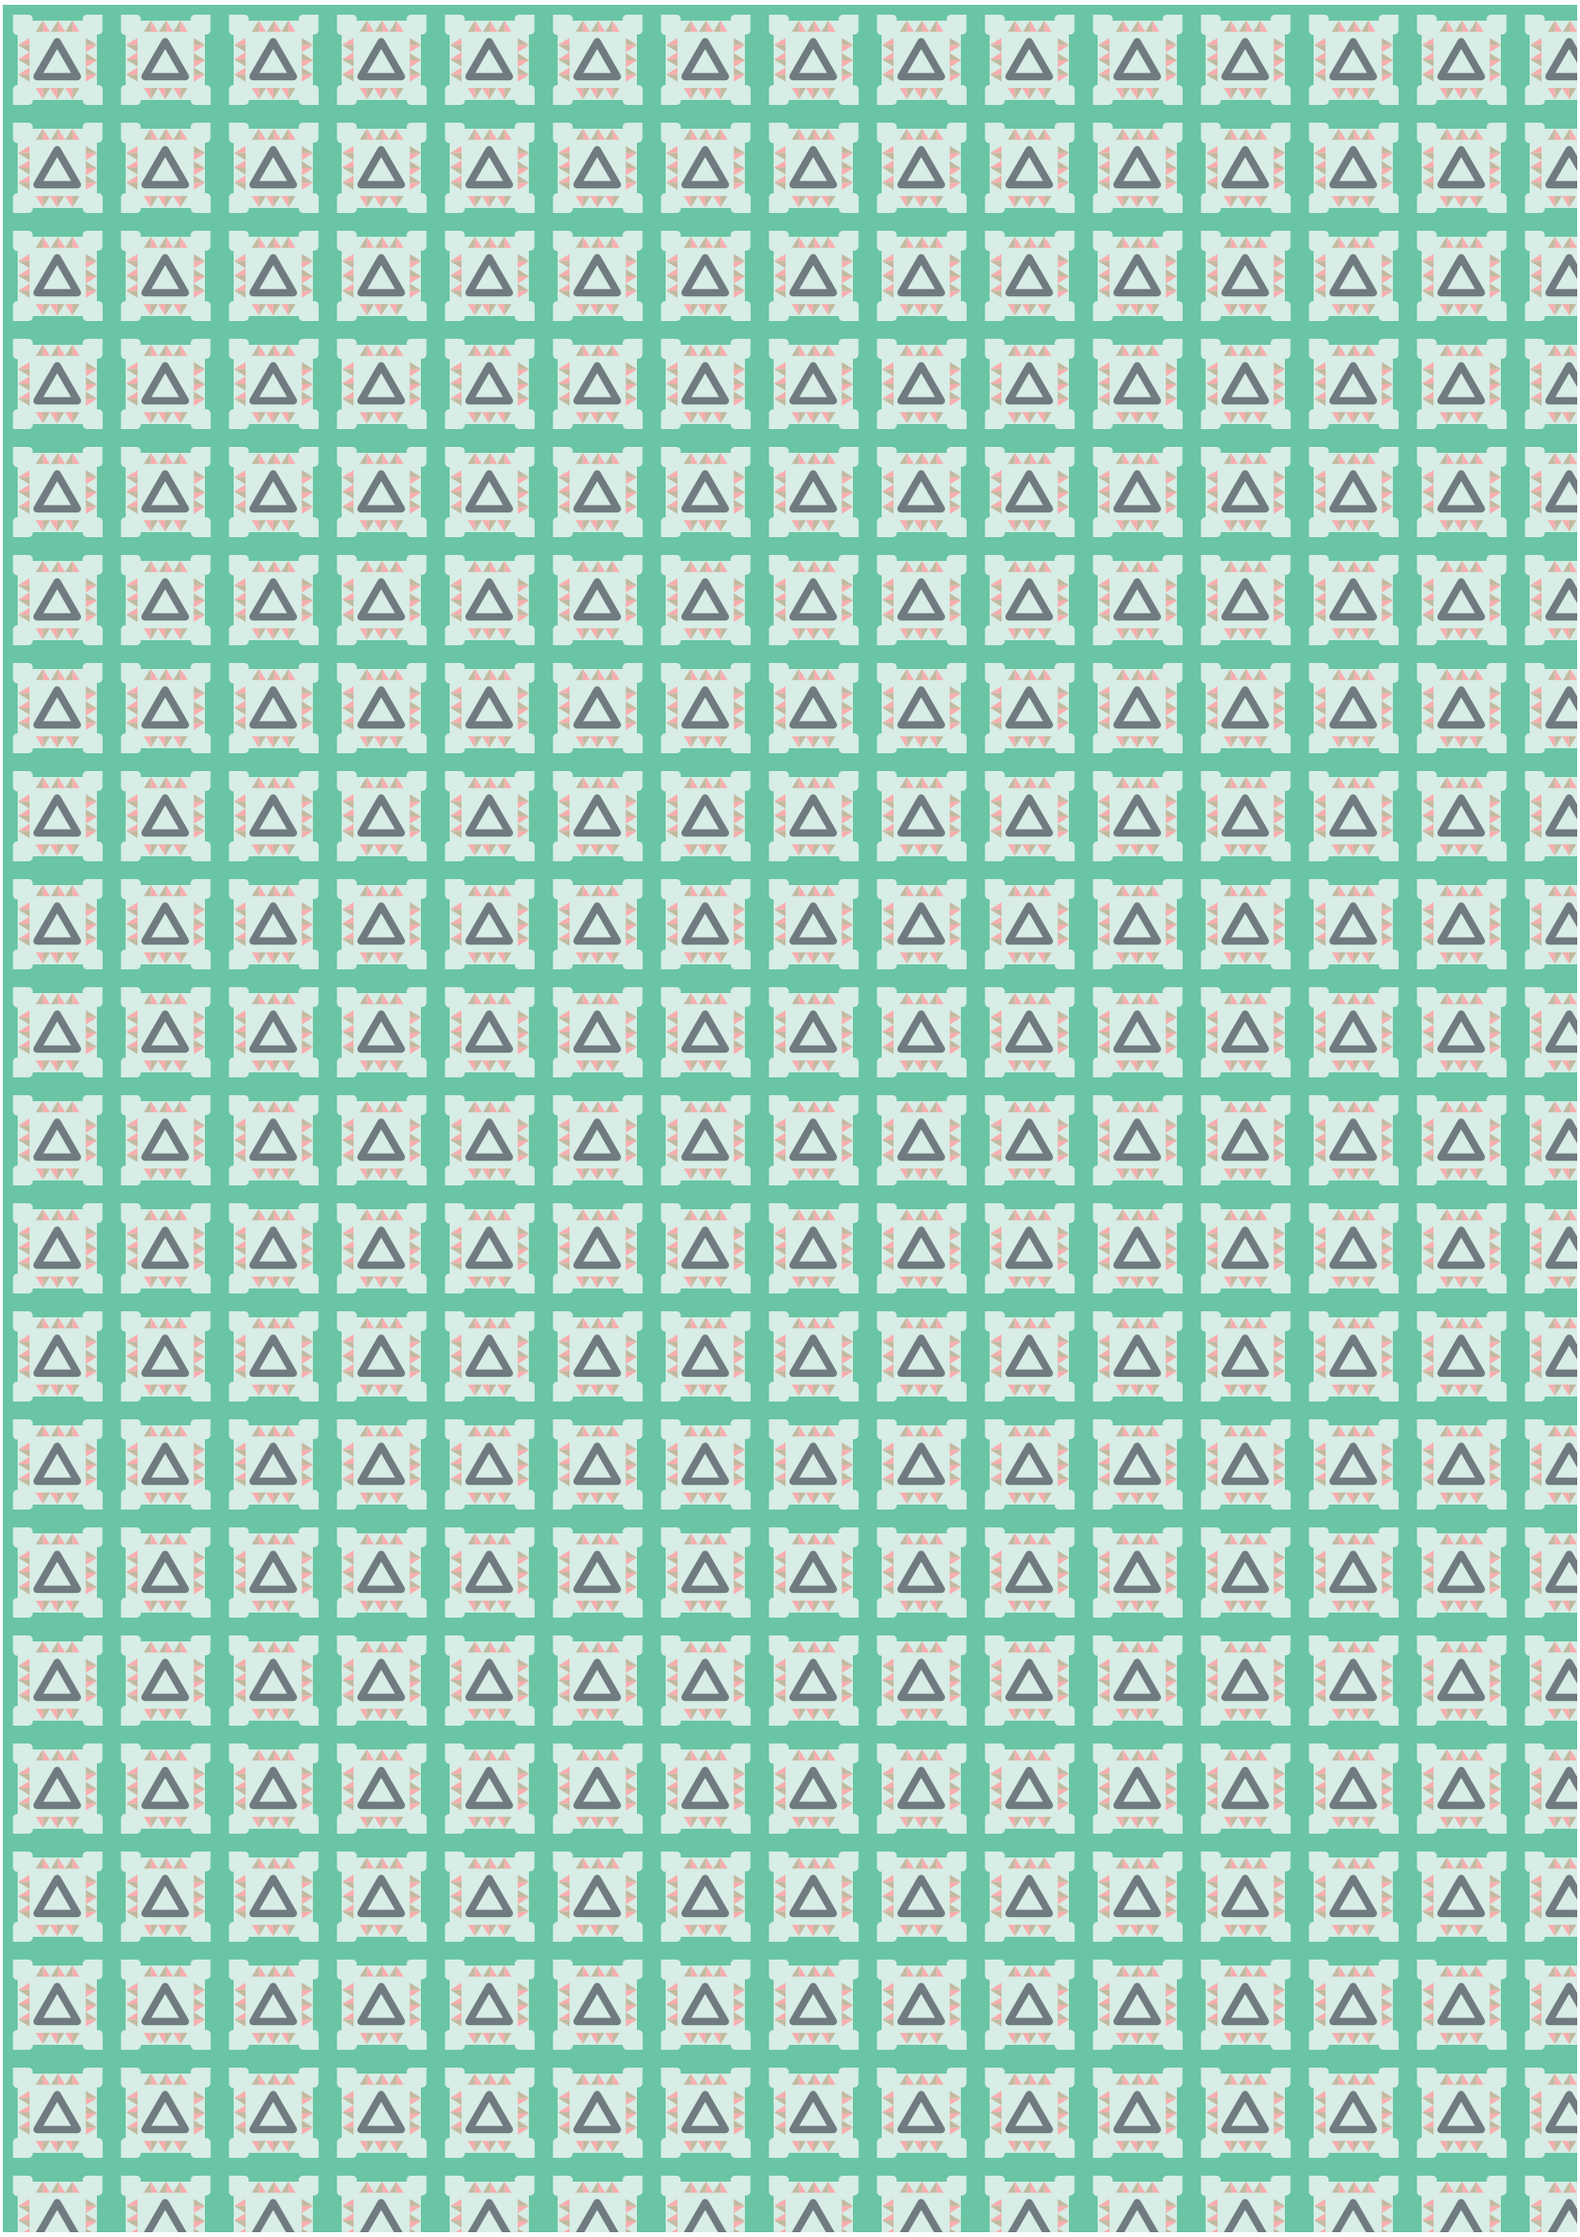
“Slip” means ‘era’. What was the longest era in Mundian history?

B39

“Slip” means ‘era’. In which era was the great maze built?

B40

“Slip” means ‘era’. In which era was it very dark on Mundus?



B41

There is an old structure on Mundus that means a lot to the Mundians. What kind of structure is it?

B42

What tools and utensils do Mundians use?

B43

Mundians like to paint. What shape do they like to paint most?

B44

Can Mundians make fire?

B45

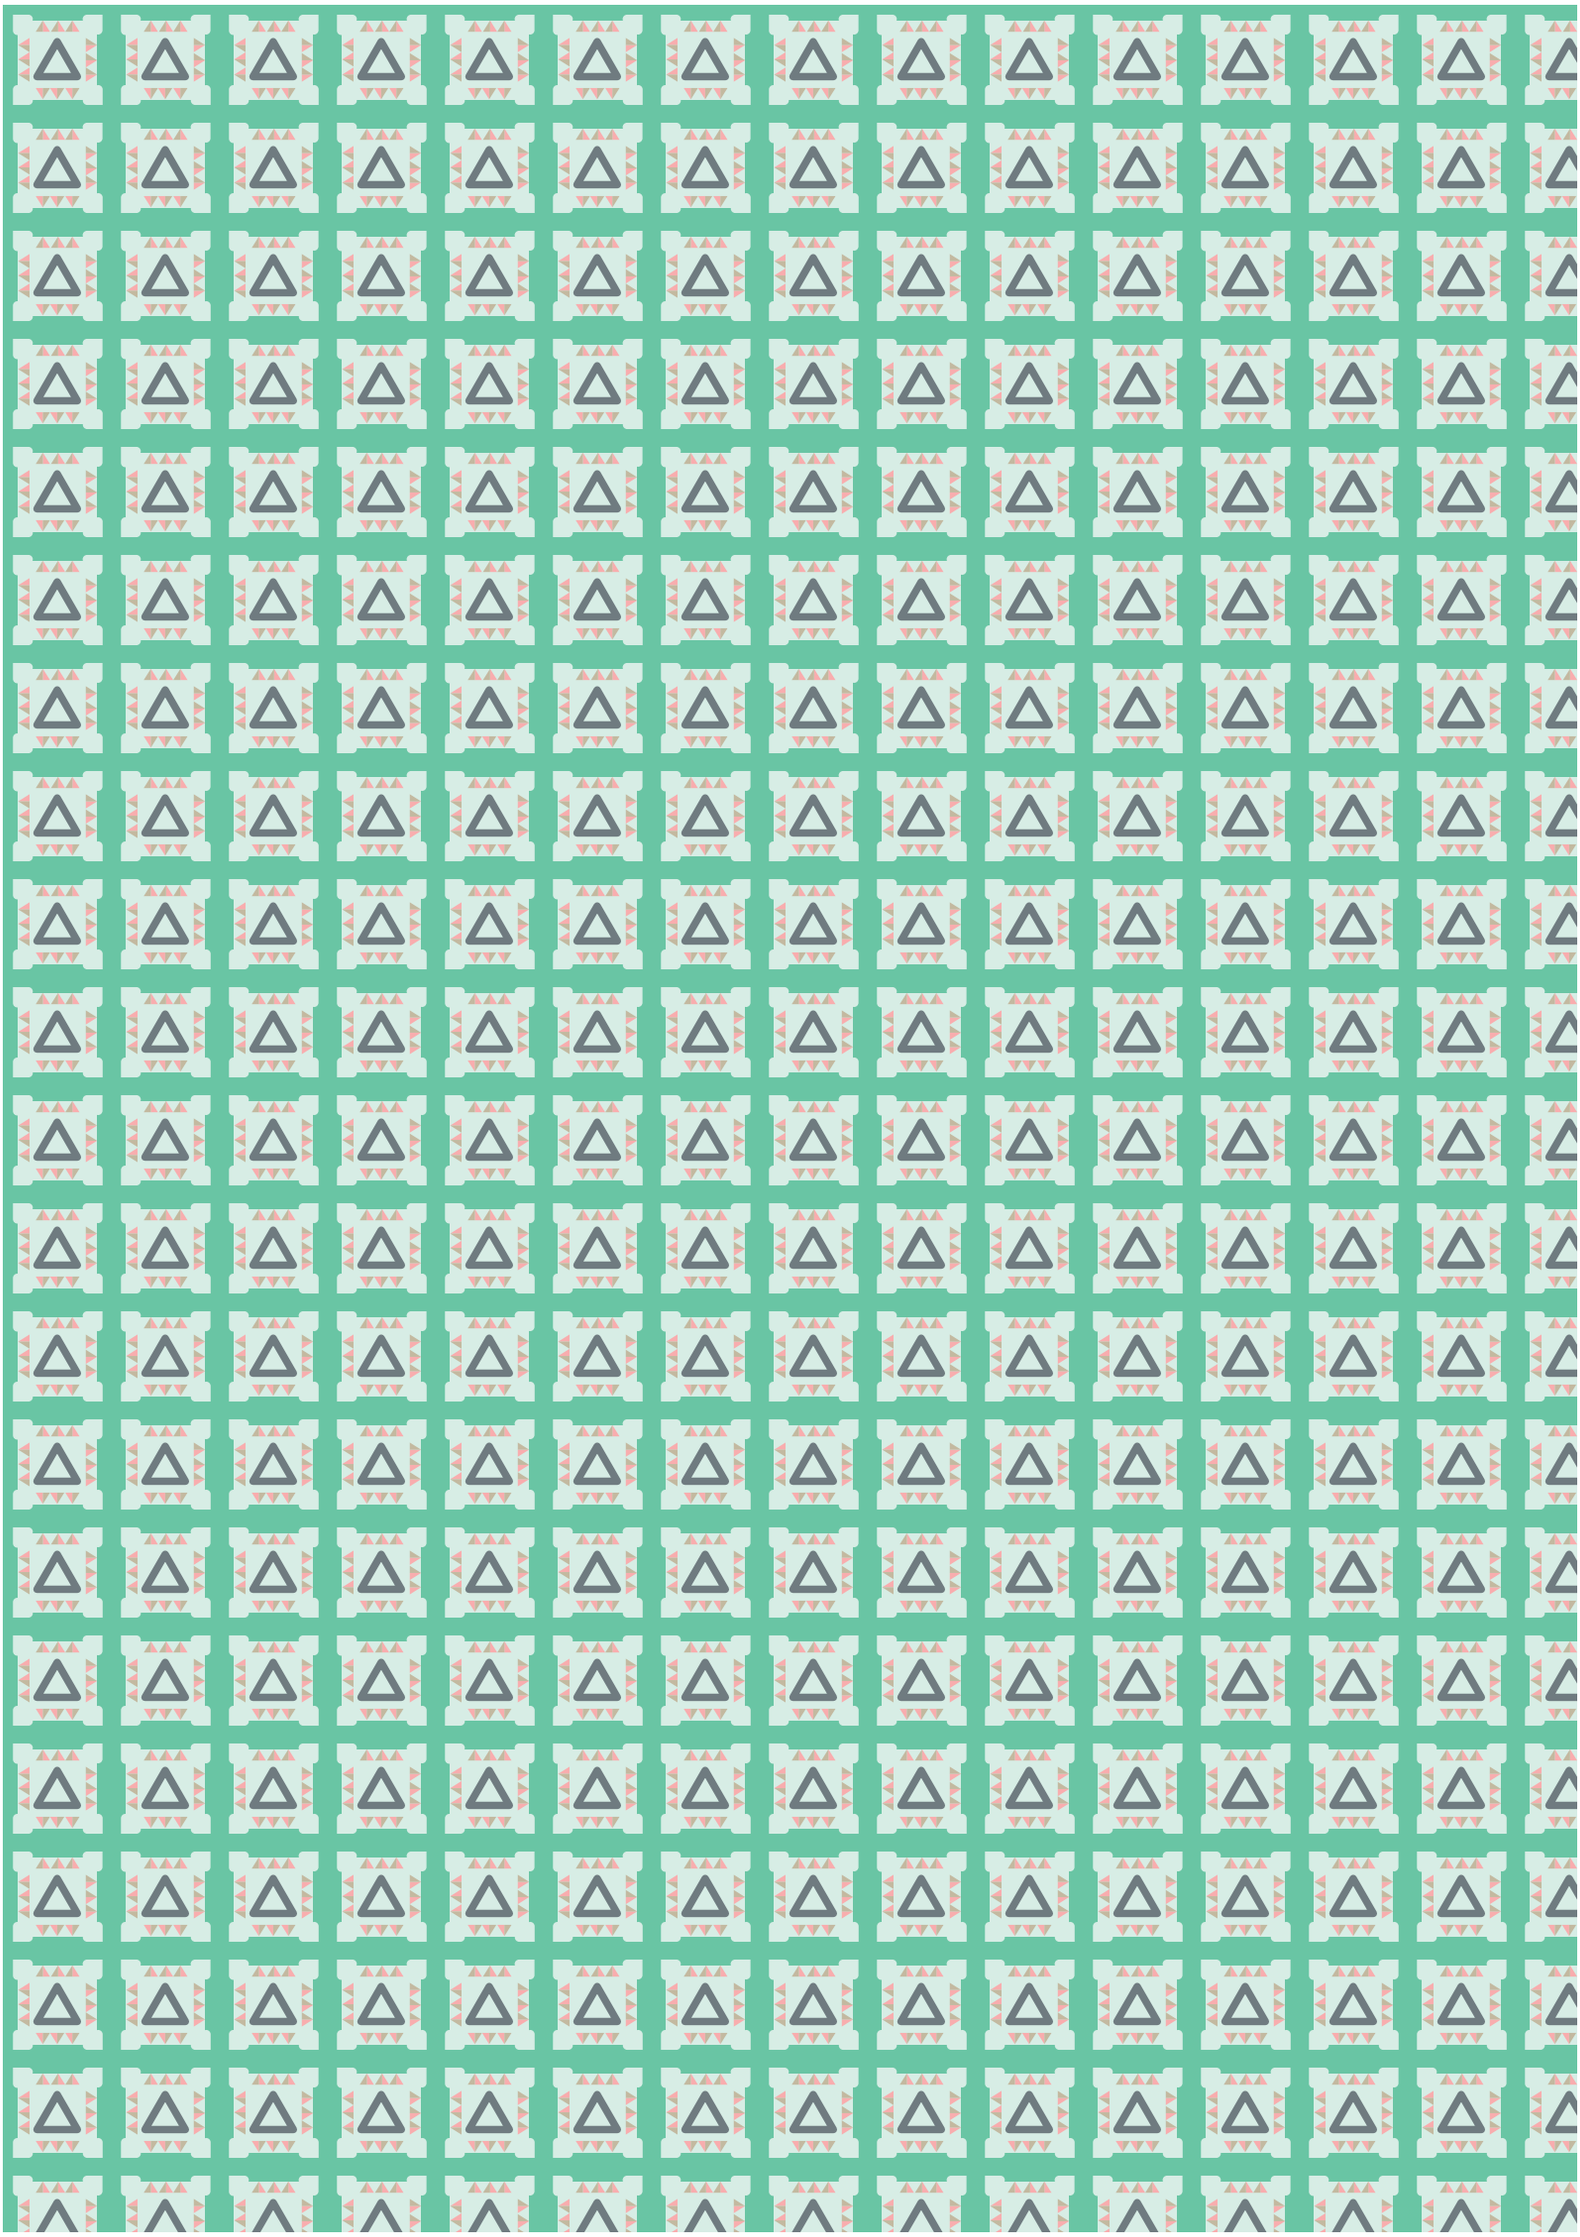
Which excavations are the oldest, those from layers 93–108 or those from 161–176?

B46

What subjects are taught in Mundian schools, as far as you can tell?

B47

Do the Mundians have electricity?

B48


"Slip" means 'era'. Mundian history is divided into how many eras?